

First Thursday

Monthly communion service

This relatively new service, started in December 2019, is called First Thursday - because it happens on the first Thursday of each month. It is held in the morning at 11am, a time that we hope will make it possible for many people to attend. It is a short, quiet contemplative service.

For any who are free and would like to stay, we offer a simple lunch in the Parish Rooms from 12:00 to 1:00. So if you're free at that time on the first Thursday of each month, why not make it a part of your monthly pattern to come and share communion?

David and Anne Brown oversee this service, so if you'd like to know more, or even volunteer to help with serving lunch, then please call or email the Church office.
